

Daniela de la Piedra

Senior Staff Attorney
AARP/Legal Counsel for the Elderly

Daniela de la Piedra joined AARP/Legal Counsel for the Elderly in 2008 as an attorney in the Public Benefits and General Services Unit. Ms. de la Piedra serves low-income DC residents and focuses her practice on Social Security retirement, disability and overpayment cases, as well as public benefits cases and Latino outreach. Ms. de la Piedra has a BA in Latin American Studies from the University of Virginia, JD from American University's Washington College of Law, and MPA from George Mason University.